Tom Baker is BWAA Kegel July Bowler of the Month

In a closely-contested decision, the Bowling Writers Association of America has named Tom Baker, King, N.C., as the BWAA Kegel Bowler of the Month for July.

Baker, a contender for 2007 PBA Senior Player of the Year, set a PBA Senior Tour record with his fourth career Major title and became just the second bowler to win back-to-back United States Bowling Congress Senior Masters titles, defeating Shannon Starnes, 658-625, to win the 2007 title at the National Bowling Stadium.

From our President...

Below are the committee assignments for the 2007-08 season. However, if you are not on a committee, or wish to add another committee, please contact me with your preference.

We need all committee members to really work this year and be a part of the process. In the past, there have been some chairs who have had problems getting responses from some members. Don't let that happen this season.
